Moonlight.. . Oh in the Moonlight Eyes bright . . . Waiting for daylight Please, don't fight, everything's so right High lights .. . Sweet golden goodnights.

But there you go, it goes to show, how my imagination
flows.
In never ending circles, with glances asking questions
We chase each other's alibis
And if my voices show me caution, (only through your eyes)

It's only through your eyes
Nightlife ...seems like a still life Waiting ...for unfinished paintings

oh but meanwhile ... time in between smiles stands still .. . like some breathless windmill.
But there you go, it goes to show, how my imagination
flows.

If the sages say I'm foolish. I'll say your every movement
Was like a river, washing over me.
But if you tell me that its ended, I'll shake my head and leave (shake my head and leave)
