(MasonThomasSlamer)

I saw him selling scenes from illegal dreams
The dude with an eye for a dime
Michael, my disciple...

Then there was John the faithless one
He was a sunny side boy on a money call
Colossal apostle...

They found us in a tent by the river Trent
We stood in the stream, killing bream
An old-time revival...

Chorus

Why don'cha!

Take a walk on the water, take a walk on the water,
Take a walk on the water...Chilly, chilly cold.
Take a walk on the water, take a walk on the water,

Take a walk on the water...Chilly, chilly.

Hey Jude with Your eyes giving guilt to mine
You caught me turning the water to wine
Water Divining

In a massive country pad
Slowly going mad, gimme a banner headline
And a space in "TIME" "The boy has the Power."

Chorus

So here we had three believers in me
With virgin white robes and mystical strobes
Mazuma time with a neon sign
Forget the tent now the money's spent.

Chorus
