Lets make the right dosage for a chemical carnival
now.

now.

She starts a fire and it's time to burn the city down
And she wont stop until she's got what is painted around her head.

This is not my fault but the matter under it all
I never wanted such great expectations

Give it up, give it up baby get off the ride
(Just put your love down, just put your love on the ground)
Give it up, give it up baby get off the ride
Woah oh oh

Lets make the right dosage...
Lets make the right dosage for a chemical carnival
now.

And I won't even close my eyes,
'Cause I want to see what you've got in store.
And I won't need to run again,
'Cause I'm ready for this.
'Cause I'm ready for this.

As you started to tie it around your neck,
You took the easy way out
And I won't be coming back for you,
Cos this town just ain't big enough.
As you started to tie it around your neck,
You took the easy way out
And I won't be coming back for you,
Cos this town just ain't big enough.
As you started to tie it around your neck,
You took the easy way out
And I won't be coming back for you,
Cos this town jsut ain't big enough.

Close my eyes,
'Cause I want to see what you've got in store.

And I won't need to run again,
'Cause I'm ready for this.
'Cause I'm ready for this.

Close my eyes,
'Cause I want to see what you've got in store.
And I won't need to run again,
'Cause I'm ready for this.
'Cause I'm ready for this.
