Iâ'm waiting for
my life to start, to tear apart and rewind.
My last resort
to find a way already, be gone..

Watch your step before you leave,
I seem to know something about you.
Iâ'm running on without you in my heart.
Understand before I go,
there is so much that you should know.
Iâ'm crying here without you in my arms.
Restless Night

When Iâ'm tipping over, I realize your not the one.
Itâ's in times like these I wonder, has my fate begun?

A rainless cloud

everyday, comes my way again.
Humble but loud
A heartless soul, has it all begun..

Watch your step before you leave,
I seem to know something about you.
Iâ'm running on without you in my heart.
Understand before I go,
there is so much that you should know.
Iâ'm crying here without you in my arms.
Restless Night

When Iâ'm tipping over, I realize your not the one.
Itâ's in times like these I wonder, has my fate begun?
