Finding My Own Way

I am home
And I am looking out
I see the stars come out
I feel the warm wind blow
It blows the soul apart.

I am out
And I am looking in
I see the lights grow dim
I feel the oceans' strength
It rips the shore apart
I'm Always Finding My Own Way
I'm Always Fighting The Hard War
I'll Always Take What You Say,
And Take Away What You Hide
And Take Away What You Deal.
I was shown,
And I have grown
I see The Words ring out...
I will live and I will fight
To keep those words intact.

I am home
And I am looking out
I see the stars come out
I feel the warm wind blow
It blows the soul apart.
I'm Always Finding My Own Way
I'm Always Fighting The Hard War
I'll Always Take What You Say,
And Take Away What You Deal.
