Well, they know that you are coming down...
Cause the words you use are so designed
And they fit the mood to hide the truth
All you know, All you feel
You're shaken up, You're covered up

Well you know you'd like to shine
And the road to crime is just some time
You feel the bumps below the road
All you hear is what they say

And all you do is what they tell

All You Know,
All You Feel,
You're Shaken Up
You're Covered Up
Come On Kid,
-Don't Give Up
Come On Kid,
-Don't Give In
All You Know,
All You Feel,
You're Shaken Up
You're Covered Up

Disguises seem so animated
And what you bury, gets recovered
You'll spend your life in chains
Cause all their shit, is what you'll swallow
And everybody has to swallow.
