On a path that's been condemned
Well, I know we're not alone
At the point of no return
We will start off, where it ends

When the hours turn to days
And your silence kills my will
Overrun with emptiness
I'm in hell, without a trace...

I Knew It Was Only Time
I Knew It When I Did The Crime
Before I Fell And I Broke From Grace
What Were You Supposed To Think?
Did You Think It Could Come So Quick

Before I Fell And I Broke From Grace
In The End, I Made My Fate
It Was I, Who Had Dealt This Fate

And the feelings, I keep close
Make no difference anyways
It would only be a lie,
So off I'll go and hide

I Knew It Was Only Time
I Knew It When I Did The Crime
Before I Fell And I Broke From Grace
What Were You Supposed To Think?
Did You Think It Could Come So Quick
Before I Fell And I Broke From Grace
In The End, I Made My Fate
It Was I, Who Had Dealt This Fate
