You don't know what you're searching for
A paradise, nonexistence
You're longing for freedom, in devil's hands

Devil's hands

We believe heaven above
You heave and shove

Blinded by a light
Branded by someones device
You don't realize, time will tell

You're building a kingdom, refusing the clans
You've been sentenced for your evil ways

Evil ways

We believe heaven above
You heave and shove

Blinded by a light
Branded by someones device
You don't realize, time will tell
We are heading to the end of the world
It's still turning!
What if, the sun does not rise again?
