The psychotic dress the senseless feature
It terrifies every living creature
Predictability is wearing thin
Groundbreaking practice for the preacher

Clowns mortified by my expression
Breathing new life into invention
And gagging the maggots with a weary hand
Has failed to leave any impression

The shock and terror keeps me sane
The shock and terror keeps me sane
Does anybody feel the same?
The shock and terror keeps me sane

Up now for seven days and wired
The concept of sleep is way too tired
And I've dialed in a plan to reinstate
Your sense of humor has expired

The shock and terror keeps me sane
The shock and terror keeps me sane
Does anybody feel the same?
The shock and terror keeps me sane
