Turn your face against the day
See my hopes into the grave
Force the silence from your life
Into my eyes
Strange the reasons that we met
Stranger now the ending rest
In a place where fires burn
Forevermore

(Chorus):

I die for you each day
As I scream aloud your name
As nothing seems the same without you tonight
I scream aloud your name
As nothing seems the same
And nothing seems so clear as your eyes tonight

And you follow as I go
Leaving life and death behind
For our paths were meant to cross
Just one last time
But, Christina, I can't die
Though the hours pass too slow
And I feel so all alone
Without you here

(Chorus)

Nothing seems so clear tonight beside your eyes
And sleep won't last too long
Nothing seems so clear tonight within my thoughts
And sleep won't last too long as morning calls

(Chorus)
