"The Alone"

Visit "The Alone" on MotoLyrics.com

There's nothing more here and nothing's changed
But hate still burns beneath this rage
I sense an ending, Within my bloodless heart
You will remember, When the walls came falling down

[Chorus]
My sins will rise up
Hope is gone again
Within my heart

There's nothing new here and nothing's changed
But hate still flows within my veins
I write the story and how it all will end
I show no mercy, As it all comes crashing down

[Chorus]

I know
A better man once lived within this skin
And it's gone again, My hope

[Chorus]
