Midnight, I took all night
Trying to put these words together
So cold, in the moonlight
Leaving me here as lost as ever
When the morning comes
I go and lean on my windowsill
Now I'm in trouble

I'm running out of time
What can I do in this sad situation
I'm out of time
And all that I need is a good explanation
Because time will tell on me
I'm out of time
I'm running out of time

Help me, come on help me
Take me from this empty silence
Save me, come on save me
Make me see or give me guidance
Then we all can fly
Out of the dark and into the light
Nobody would know

I'm running out of time
What can I do in this sad situation
I'm out of time
And all that I need is a good explanation
Because time will tell on me
I'm out of time
I'm running out of time

(Take me away
Take me away
There's so many things I just gotta say)

I'm running out of time
What can I do in this sad situation
I'm out of time
And all that I need is a good explanation
Because time will tell on me

I'm out of time
I'm running out of time

I'm running out of time
What can I do in this sad situation
I'm out of time
And all that I need is a good explanation
Because time will tell on me
I'm out of time
I'm running out of time
