I crawled through the forgotten house
In open air I will be appeased
Rubyless settings on a terrace hill
They seemed swallowed by the sun
They seemed swallowed by the sun

It is even hot
It is even hot under the blue moon
I can't sleep

I am deeply agonized by you
Deeply agonized by love
I'm deeply agonized by you
Deeply agonized by love

Madding crowd in my view
Squigle myself underneath
I say
The stream flows, the sky blows as a sultry breeze
And the madding crowd still in my view
I think
I am deeply agonized by you
I am deeply agonized by you
By your love

She comes
She comes my way
Here she comes
She comes my way
A blurred moon throws a shadow on my face
The black sea dashed like a thunder in my ears
I am deeply agonized by you
By your love
