"Farewell"

Visit "Farewell" on MotoLyrics.com

All these helpless fallen angels
Evading commonplace
Dreading a thousand nameless evils
In the dark shimmering rays

The one with all the intuition
Knows now there's nothing gained
This cycle needs no repetition
I simply move away

Farewell affectionate brothers
you won't see me again
Farewell affectionate brothers
you won't hear me again

All in all, it's all forgotten
there's beauty in decay
Like the sun's tears in heaven
Calls back the castaway

Farewell affectionate brothers
I won't see you again
Farewell affectionate brothers
I cast my cares away

Farewell affectionate brothers
I won't see you again
Farewell affectionate brothers
you won't hear me again
