Everything is turning round and around
And around and around Mythical problems in time and the living sun
influencing life
But she doesn't, but she doesn't decide, she's careless
Everything is just going on, going on, just as planned...
'till the end of the century

Merely a few wonder about the vanishing of this world
They will turn around, turn around, turn around Everything is just going on, going on, going on, just as
with what will come, with what will come So turn around, turn around, so turn around, so turn,
turn around
Some are born to sweet delight, some are born to endless night
mind and matter have no bounds, the poison creeps where you cannot reach

Everything is turning round and around and around Mythical problems in time and the living sun,
influencing life
But she doesn't decide, but she doesn't decide She 's careless, everything is just going on, going on just as planned What's left behind, the spinning round of the essence of the source
It's going round It's going round It's going round
It's going round It's going round It's going round
Merely a few wonder about the vanishing of this world
They will turn around, turn around, turn around, turn
Everything is just going fine, under the living sun, it's just going fine under the living sun

Everything is just going on, going on, going on, , just as planned What's left behind has got nothing to do with what will come, with what will come What will come, what will come...

Everything is turning round and around
And around and around
Mythical problems in time and the living sun
influencing life
But she doesn't, but she doesn't decide, she's careless
Everything is just going on, going on, just as planned...

Merely a few wonder about the vanishing of this world
They will turn around, turn around, turn around Everything is just going on, going on, going on, just as
planned.
with what will come, with what will come
So turn around, turn around, so turn around, so turn,
turn around
Some are born to sweet delight, some are born to
endless night
Mind and matter have no bounds, the poison creeps
where you cannot reach

Everything is turning round and around and around
Mythical problems in time and the living sun,

It's going round It's going round It's going round
It's going round It's going round It's going round
Merely a few wonder about the vanishing of this world
They will turn around, turn around, turn around, turn
Everything is just going fine, under the living sun, it's

Everything is just going on, going on, going on, just as
