I'm here, laying underneath
But there is nothing left to say
You slowly went your way from me
Felt your softness fade away

Who am I?
Who am I?
To make you stay

Oh , here we go again
Entering the masquerade
This is the place
Dreams will shatter

Cover your face and care no more
Oh until she goes around [Incomprehensible]
She don't care no more
She don't care no more

These narrowed eyes I don't know
Nothing is there behind, the mask you wear
Now it feels so unreal
Cold as ice, this face I see

Masquerade, masquerade
Let me out
Masquerade, masquerade
Care no more

Masquerade
She don't care no more
Masquerade, masquerade
Let me out to save her
