No kisses for me
No dream tonight
'Cause no one loves me
Or hold me tight

But broken romance
Now makes me weep
It makes me walk, walk, walk
Down this lonely street

This street of tears
That's long and dark
Place went down wrong
With a broken heart

But my arms still tired
Can't wait from sleep
Like me to walk, walk, walk
Down this lonely street

He'll promise you love
But laugh down deep
He'll then cause you
To walk this lonely street

This street of tears
That's long and dark
Place went down wrong
With a broken heart

But my arms still tired
Can't wait from sleep
Like me to walk, walk, walk
Down this lonely street
