My mind say stop, my heart say go
My heart say kill, my mind say no
I don't know, which way should I choose?

Well I know a man, he's my friend
But he steals from a family of friends
But I could never tell that man good-bye

I got a heart, I got a mind
But I can't keep them in time

I got a heart, I got a mind
But I can't keep them in time

It's the same for everyone
Stuck between the right and wrong
But you just gonna tell you which way

Someone comes, and someone kills
Someone chews a lot of pills
But you can put your self up to say so

You got a heart, you got a mind
But you can't keep them in time

You got a hea-ar-art, you got a mind
But you can't keep them in time

If only I could keep my heart and mind in tact
But sometimes someone's wise,
Sometimes I want ____

I got a heart, I got a mind
But I can't tell love apart

I got a heart, I got a mind
But I can't tell love apart

Hea-ar-ar-ar-art, I got a mi-i-i-i-ind
But I ca-a-a-a-an't keep them in time

I got a hea-ar-ar-ar-art, I got a mi-i-i-i-ind
But I ca-a-a-a-an't tell love apart

It's very difficult

We got the keys
To your heart

I got the keys, keys
To your heart, heart
And I got 'em
On my chain, on my chain

I got the keys
To your heart, heart
And I got 'em
On my chain, on my chain

I got the keys, keys
To your heart, heart
And I got 'em
On my chain, on my chain

(inaudible verse)

I got the keys, keys
To your heart, heart
And I got 'em
On my chain, on my chain

I got the keys, keys
To your heart, heart
And I got 'em
On my chain, on my chain
