Anybody why I can't fulfill my selfish angst, tell me something I just can't find anything to fight, it's all I need fuck the greed and anything in sight it's killing me and I can't breathe and I don't think it's right cause you say and I don't like it, start a revolt now it's coming, I don't think I'm ready so I won't, anybody give me reasons tell me why it's wrong tell me something. what's it mean and what's it mean to me yeah, believe me cause i won't leave you standing there while I run the show and I can't lie I think I'd die if you knew me you'd just wanna go.
