Some say the glass is half full
The glass is half full
The glass is half full
Some say that it's half empty
That it's half empty
That it's half empty

Oh oh
We should trust machines
To make up our minds
Human error keeps us guessing
All our lives
Trust the machines
They will keep us
They will keep us alive

Some say we came from eden
We came from eden
We came from eden
And some say we all are prime mates
We all are prime mates
We all are prime mates

We should trust machines

To make up our minds
Human error keeps us guessing
All our lives
Trust the machines
They will keep us
They will keep us alive
Alive alive alive

And some say the end is coming
The end is coming
The end is coming
Some say that we're just starting
That we're just starting

Yeah
We should trust machines
To make up our minds

Human error keeps us guessing
All our lives
Trust the machines
They will keep us
They will keep us alive
Alive alive alive alive ...
