Here I am losing at life
Maybe I set my goals to high
Gotta pull It together
Pull myself together

I ain't ever owned a thing
Ain't got no shred of decency
Gotta pull it together
Pull myself together

Nothing's changed It's no coincidence
I feel like I'm going under
Nothing's changed I can't get out of this
So why do I even bother

I need to reinvent myself
And I must escape this living hell
Gotta pull it together
Pull myself together

Nothing's changed
It's no coincidence I feel like I'm going under
Nothing's changed I can't get out of this
So why do I even bother

So why should I believe anything

Gotta pull it together gotta pull it together

Nothing's changed
It's no coincidence I feel like I'm going under
Nothing's changed I can't get out of this
So why do I even bother

Nothing's changed
It's no coincidence I feel like I'm going under
Nothing's changed I can't get out of this
So why do I even bother
