Things were better left unsaid
But none of that matters now I guess
What if I could right my wrongs
And lay my fears to rest

So please tell me it's a dream
I'm unsure if this real or maybe I'm still asleep
Unsteady as she goes
I'm betting the wast wind blows me away forever

You and me have honestly
Gotten in over our heads
What makes you think that I'll stick around
When you're at war with yourself

So please tell me It's a dream
I'm unsure if this real or maybe I'm still asleep
Unsteady as she goes
I'm betting the wast wind blows me far far away
Far away forever
Far far away forever
But not far enough

If you break it
You buy it before you leave
Don't be so selfish
What's that gonna prove

So please tell me it's a dream
I'm unsure if this real or maybe I'm still asleep
Unsteady as she goes
I'm betting the wast wind blows me far far away
Far away forever
So Far away

Unsteady as she goes
I'm betting the wast wind blows me far far away
Far away forever
Far far away forever
But not far enough
