[Intro - Classified - talking] (Class, yo Class man, I heard these guys hatin on ya man Your beats, your lyrics, everything) Ha, Whatever man, it's their opinion, everyone got one, right? I think I'm the dopest on the planet right now but it's just my opinion Yeah, yeah It's just my opinion, don't sound so affected, it's just my opinion Yeah It's just my opinion Yo, let me do this, you ready? [Verse 1 - Classified] It's all a matter of opinion, some stay losin, some winnin Some fall off in a minute, some blow up on a instant Some come out of Canada, the best country to live in Unless you like me and you a strugglin musician Constantly grindin, honest when rhymin Tryin to make a buck with no major label signing Climbin the ladder tryin to reach for the prime It's like a midget takin stairs two steps at a time (it won't happen) So I discharge, spit bars, sit back And leave thick scars from toes to your chin strap Ain't tryin to get hard but kick start on impact Crash through your class and give rap acts whiplash So where your clique at? (gasp), get your wind back (exhale) You need a break? Then eat a motherfuckin Kit Kat I'll leave you mismatched with nowhere to go but down Kill the chit chat and get your whole show shut down [Chorus - Classified] - w/ ad libs It's just an opinion, haha, it's just my opinion Don't get it twisted, it's just my opinion Ain't nothin personal, it's my view and my visions It's just an opinion So, don't get it twisted, it's just my opinion Ain't nothin personal, it's my beliefs and my visions [Verse 2 - Classified] (So call me) a whack rapper, (call me) a backpacker (Call me) a no back cracker, that's gets around on tractors Just call me (phone ringing) and say it to my face Everybody got an opinion but stick to what ya say A man's words work and verses many ways I plan to serve herbs and murder any stage I plan to impress, pretty to filthy hoes And put Canada on my back like Kanye West in his video I ain't a savior, I'm a freak of nature I break pens and eat paper, then a week later Spit it out for each hater, unnormal behavior But I told ya before, I'm not your average beatmaker It's my opinion, World class premiere I sat in front of a turntable half of last year Diggin and creatin, that's all

a kid got That's why three fourths of my tracks are about hip-hop [Chorus - Classified] - w/ ad libs It's just an opinion, it's just my opinion Don't get it twisted, it's just my opinion Ain't nothin personal, it's my view and my visions If I don't like your style, it's just an opinion If I say you're a bitch, it's just my opinion If I think your rhymes are whack, it's just an opinion Don't sound so affected, it's just my opinion And if you think I talk funny, that's just your opinion If you don't like my clothes, that's just your opinion And if you don't feel my flow, that's just your opinion I won't sound affected, it's just an opinion [Verse 3 - Classified] Yeah and this is for the open-minded, who live outside the box Who ain't confined and tryin to walk in someone else's socks Whoever speakin out usin common sense Ain't scared to voice their opinion and deal with the consequence I give you props, it's harder than it looks You need to do your part and be smart without books They'll try to have you shook (dog barking), the bark is weak You can say that rhyme pays but I know talk's cheap And I don't hear it, I need to see actions not lyrics I can see through your spirit, no matter what clothes you wearin A lot of people really got to get back to the basics That's just my opinion, nobody got to take it [Chorus - Classified] - w/ ad libs And that's just my opinion, ha Don't get it twisted, it's just my opinion Ain't nothin personal, it's my view and my visions It's just an opinion So, don't get it twisted, it's just my opinion Ain't nothin personal, it's my beliefs and my visions It's just an opinion, it's just an opinion Don't sound so affected, it's just my opinion
