When you feel you are lonely
You think you're the only
One who feels that way
You sit watching the wall
Feel like ending it all
If no-one calls to say
Hello, how are you today
Why not come and see a play
Or a movie?
I'll come over anyway
Talk a while, and I may stay
Over, we'll see
All alone in your room
If someone won't come soon
There's no-one's voice but yours
You look out of the window
There's nobody you know
Coming through the door
Silence is the only friend
Feels like we have reached the end
Of a movie
Now there's no more turning back
Everything is grey on black
What do you see?
No-one cares alive or dead
Thoughts run riot in your head
Like a movie
Lock the door and lose the key
Everyone out there you'll be
Sorry, you'll see
Time has never seemed so long
There's no comfort in a song
Or a movie
Couldn't stand it anymore
Tried to find a way out for yours truly
