You and I said goodbye, going on our different ways Running from the yesterdays but you are never far away from me
Follow mother, have a try, flying high with some other love affair
I know that you are always there where you'll always be.
You're like a song that keeps on lingering on Although I try to belong to another.
You are the one I'm always dreaming about
I know I can't live without our song of love.

Love is like the kind of song that goes on and on and on
As you sing a little dance, a little cry, a little laugh
A little love will call the tune.
Love is like a great refrain, it will leave and come again
As you sing a little dance, a little cry, a little laugh
A little love will call the tune.
You must be like a dancer as you take a chance
While I wouldn't take
But the clown who was in love will laugh
And sing although his heart might break.
Love is like a melody that will never set you free
As you sing a little dance, a little cry, a little laugh
A little love will call the tune.

Nothing means what it seems, I am just pretending through
Fall in love with someone new, although it will be always you for me.
As I sit alone and try losing my memories in small caf s
I know that when the music plays, it's you that I see.
Walking on air as I imagine you there
You're in my arms and we share love and music.
Could it be true that I am somewhere with you
And you're remembering too, our song of love?

Love is like the kind of song that goes on and on and
on
As you sing a little dance, a little cry, a little laugh
A little love will call the tune.

Love is like a great refrain, it will leave and come again
As you sing a little dance, a little cry, a little laugh
A little love will call the tune.
You must be like a dancer as you take a chance
While I wouldn't take
But the clown who was in love will laugh
And sing although his heart might break.

Love is like the kind of song that goes on and on and
on
As you sing a little dance, a little cry, a little laugh
A little love will call the tune.
Love is like a great refrain, it will leave and come again
As you sing a little dance, a little cry, a little laugh
A little love will call the tune.
You must be like a dancer as you take a chance
While I wouldn't take
But the clown who was in love will laugh
And sing although his heart might break.

Love is like the kind of song that goes on and on and
on
As you sing a little dance, a little cry, a little laugh
A little love will call the tune.
Love is like a great refrain, it will leave and come again
As you sing a little dance, a little cry, a little laugh...
