have you got what it takes can you handle the truth if its right in your face because im not afraid no use in crying when theres no escape i wonder why i love you tghis much standing by your side through all you've done

i could run away to a safer place i could let you go but i've learnt to be brave cuz to reach the sun gotta go through rain so i prayed, but damn it hurts to be brave (yeah to be brave,yeah)

i could fake i could lie i could tell you i dont think of you every night save myself with goodbyes but instead ill bury my pride i wonder why i want you this much some days i wanna die look what you've done

i could run away to a safer place
i could let you go but i've learnt to be brave
so i prayed, but damn it hurts to be brave (yeah to be brave,yeah)

so ive picked myself up, yeah off of the ground never questioned this love girl you let me down not a day goes by when i have a doubht still it hurts to be brave

i could let you go but i've learnt to be brave
so i prayed, but damn it hurts to be brave

i could let you go but i've learnt to be brave
so i prayed, but damn it hurts to be brave
