Sometimes you gotta hit rock bottom
Before you wake up
Hit when you're at your lowest,
That's when you know it's what you're made of

Suddenly I feel stronger than I ever
Was before and I know what I'm worth,
You don't deserve me
It took a minute but I finally got the courage
Yeah to say I don't want you around
I'm walking out ah

Feet don't fail me now I've got to keep moving
And I can't stand to stand around, am I coming or going (ayy)
Feet don't fail me now I've got to keep moving
(Walk, walk, walk, walk, walk away)
And I can't stand to stand around, am I coming or going
(Walk, walk, walk, ayy, walk away)

One day you wake up and love ain't Enough of a reason to stay, yeah
We look at one another like total
Strangers going nowhere

Suddenly I feel stronger than I ever
Been before and I know what I'm worth
You don't deserve me
It took a minute but I finally got the courage,
Yea to say I don't want you around
I'm breaking out ohh

Feet don't fail me now I've got to keep moving
And I can't stand to stand around, am I coming or
going (ayy)
Feet don't fail me now I've got to keep moving
(Walk, walk, walk, walk, walk away)
And I can't stand to stand around, am I coming or
going
(Walk, walk, walk, ayy, walk away)

It's over and we know it, there's no
One now for me to stay
I'm tired of pretending, so I'm gone today
I'm gone today

Feet don't fail me now I've got to keep moving
And I can't stand to stand around, am I coming or
going (ayy)
Feet don't fail me now I've got to keep moving
(Walk, walk, walk, walk, walk away)
And I can't stand to stand around, am I coming or
going
(Walk, walk, walk, ayy, walk away)
