Aches, pains, night and day
Ready for war
Dressed in camo, got my ammo
I want a star
Show me every enemy
I'm aiming for hearts
Infrared, bloodshed
This ain't a game
Spraying bullets watch me do it
I won't take a threat to my baby

See I'm, baby, patient
But there's one thing that I won't forgive
I still remember when someone told me
If you don't stamp something
Then you'll fall for anything

You better fight for your love
Fight for your love
Fight for you fight for you fight for your love
Fight for your love
Fight for your love
Fight for you fight for you fight for your love

Hope yes who's next
I'm on a roll
Renegading cockulating
My blood is cold
I dare you to say something to me come on
I don't have a problem sending you to the grave
Watch your mouth slow it down
Pick what you say
Cause I won't take the threat to my baby

See I'm, baby, patient
But there's one thing that I won't forgive
I still remember when someone told me
If you don't stamp something
Then you'll fall for anything

You better fight for your love
Fight for your love

Fight for you fight for you fight for your love
Fight for your love
Fight for your love
Fight for you fight for you fight for your love

See I'm, baby, patient
But there's one thing that I won't forgive
I still remember when someone told me
If you don't stamp something
Then you'll fall for anything

You better fight for your love
Fight for your love
Fight for you fight for you fight for your love
Fight for your love
Fight for your love
Fight for you fight for you fight for your love
