after the lightning strikes i'll hide in your arms as we wait for the dawn can we bring this love back to life?
forever you or forever gone cos we're hanging on a thread, yeah not sure what lies ahead for us now will we make it through the storm?

forever you or forever gone

never thought, that i'd be here wishing i didn't have to make this decision all i want is to know which way to go

how will i know which road to follow where will my faith lead me tomorrow love is a heartless pill to swallow if we fall apart, can i hold on?

the stars never really fade, no but i know sometimes that they have to hide but you taught me how to be strong
forever you or forever gone

where will my faith lead me tomorrow
if we fall apart, can i hold on?

is it wrong for me to want half that i dreamed of my whole life and if all we would leave, turned out to be a lie could i just pack away the tears that i cry? but i know, where i belong

if we fall apart, can i hold on?

forever you, yeah, forever gone

i'll hide in your arms as we wait for the dawn.....
