yeah yeah
i don't want a man to kiss the ground that i walk on i don't need all that but i want you to understand who i am, where i come from (whoa whoa yeah) you see the last man i've been with wasn't really who he said he was no i found out he was lying all along see he told me he was single but there were other women getting his love i wanna let you in but first you gotta..

leave your shoes at the door
don't bring your drama in here cos i don't wanna hurt anymore i wanna give you my heart but lets make this perfectly clear you gotta leave your shoes at the door see i wanna let you in (yeah) but i don't wanna hurt again so you gotta leave you shoes at the door baby i don't want a man to treat me like i'm a princess see none of that shit ain't real i just want a man that's honest and knows how to be faithful to me someone who cares how i feel (yeah yeah)

yeah i wanna let you in but first you gotta..

see i wanna let you in

you seem like you won't break my heart in two but that's what i thought about the one who came before you so i gotta check before i let you in cos i can't let disaster happen again leave your shoes at the door (leave them right there)

cos i don't wanna hurt anymore (anymore) i wanna give you my heart (i wanna give you my heart) but lets make this perfectly clear (yeah yeah) you gotta leave your shoes at the door whoa oh oh
oh oh oh oh
oh oh oh oh
see you gotta leave your shoes at the door if you're gonna bring drama baby
oh oh oh oh
then turn around and leave
oh oh oh oh
