Now I know ain't no such things goes when I look at me
Could've swore that I've heard the door opening
For a second I felt you so close to me
Am I just out of touch,
Do I miss you that much?
Now my friends tell me I should be over you,
But I'm stuck where I am and I'm so confused.

Won't someone tell me red light, green light
Should I move on or hang tight
Cause I know there's a way to get you back in my life
And I wish I could make up my mind.
Oh wont someone tell me red light, or green light.

Now I know that staying home ain't helping me
I gotta go out and meet someone eventually.
But everytime that I try your face is all I see.
Am I just out of touch,
Do I miss you that much?
All my friends tell me I should be over you
But I'm stuck where I am and I'm so confused.

Won't someone tell me red light, (should I go) green
light
Should I move on, (should I let it go) or hang tight
Cause I know there's a way to get you back in my life
And I wish I could make up my mind.
Oh wont someone tell me red light, or green light.

I don't wanna stay home
And I'm tired of being alone
But I can't move on Which way should I be going
See lately I don't know it so...

[Someone tell me] red light (or should I go) green light
Should I move on or hang tight.
Cause I know there's a way to get you back in my life
And I wish I could make up my mind

Oh wont someone tell me red light, (should I go) green
light

Should I move on or hang tight
Cause I know there's a way to get you back in my life
And I wish I could make up my mind
Oh wont someone tell me red light or green light
