[Verse 1]

See, I've been to a place
Called hell on earth
Where your body is the same
But you heart really burns
That kind of pain
Is more like a curse

Yeah, yeah

I was down on the ground
But the tears wouldn't come
Could not make a sound
My voice wouldn't budge
Nobody around
They assumed i was done

Yeah, yeah

[CHORUS]

When i got ready to close my eyes
Kiss my chance at love goodbye
Here comes hope like a ray of light
It was you're greatest day
And ooh
You ain't gotta climb this mountain alone
Just take my hand
And i wait for you
When you cant be strong
Worst part is over
Worst part is over
I'm here to hold you
Worst part is over

[Verse 2]

See the measure of love
Ain't when you're up
Its about who sticks around
When you can't see the sun
And you've proven to be
Someone i can trust

Yeah, yeah

[CHORUS]

Cause just when I was ready to close my eyes
Kiss my chance at love goodbye
Here comes hope like a ray of light
It was you're greatest day
And ooh
You ain't gotta climb this mountain alone
(Ain't gotta climb this mountain)
Just take my hand
(Take my hand)
And I'll wait for you
When you cant be strong
Worst part is over
(Worst part is over)
Worst part is over
(Worst part is over)
I'm here to hold you
(I'm here to hold you)
Worst part is over
(Worst part is over)

[Bridge]

You're that extra bit of faith
When I'm giving up
That litte boost of strength
When I'm against the wall
In every way you show
That the definition of love
Cause you let me know

[CHORUS]

Ooh, you ain't gotta climb this mountain alone
Just take my hand
And i wait for you
When you cant be strong
Worst part is over
(Worst part is over)
Worst part is over
(Worst part is over)
I'm here to hold you
(Me to hold you)
Worst part is over
(Worst part is over)

See, I've been to a place
Called hell on earth
But that part is over
