If words could be unsaid
If goodbye's could be undone
I'd promise I'd let, let you know that your the one
I know I said this was the end
And as you watch me drive away
My minds on a paddle
But my heart is on the brakes

Just when, I break away
I hear myself say...

Wait, it's never too late
To let your guard down
I think I'd better Turn this Car around
Cause I can't take, watchin you fade, into the back row
So I better turn this car around
I gotta turn this car around
(Id better Turn this Car around)

It don't take long to learn
Watcha just can't live without
It's only been minutes
But my heart begins to pound
Think I'm allergic to the space
That I'm in when your not around
You wouldn't believe this
But the sun it's hit so loud?

Just when, I break away
I hear myself say...

Wait, it's never too late
To let your guard down
I think I'd better Turn this Car around
Cause I can't take, watchin you fade, into the back row
So I better turn this car around
I gotta turn this car around
(Id better Turn this Car around)
I gotta turn this car around
(id better turn this car around)

If words could be unsaid

If goodbye's could be undone
Well maybe they caaaaaaaaaaan, oh!

Wait, it's never too late
To let your guard down
I think I'd better Turn this Car around
Cause I can't take, watchin you fade, into the back row
So I better turn this car around
I gotta turn this car around
(Id better Turn this Car around)
Better turn it around
I gotta turn this car around
