See I bin trough a place, called hell on earth
Were you body is the same but you heart really burns
That kind of pain is more like a curse

Yeahee yeahaa

I was down on the ground but the tears wouldn't come
Could not make a sound
My voice werent much
Nobody around
I assumed I was done

Eeyee yeahaa

CORUS

When I get ready to close my eyes
Is much comes a lover by
There comes hope and you realise
It was you're greatest day
You aint gotta climb this mountain alone
Just take my hand
And I wait for you, and you can't be strong
Worst part is over
Worst part is over
I'm here to hold you
Worst part is over

See the man she was loved
Aint were you up
It's about how sticks around
When you can see the sun
The prouf aint to be
So why I can trust

Eeyee yeahaa

When I get ready to close my eyes
Is much comes a lover by
There comes hope and you realise
It was you're greatest day
You gotta climb this mountain alone
Just take my hand

And I wait for you, and you can't be strong
Worst part is over
Worst part is over
I'm here to hold you
Worst part is over

You're that extra bit of faith when I'm giving up
That litte boost of strenght when I'm against the wall

The definition of love
Cos you let me know

You aint gotta climb this mountain alone
Just take my hand
And I wait for you, and you can't be strong
Worst part is over
Worst part is over
I'm here to hold you
Worst part is over

See I bin trough a place it called hell on earth
But that part is over
