N. Giraldo, M. Grombacher, F. Linx)

The hammer lands, the verdict stands, the walls come tumblin' down

The color code, rule of thumb, shadows on the sun

Can you tell me? Where it's really at

Chorus:

All around the world tonight, people watchin', people
waitin'

All around the world tonight, people feelin' disconnected

(Somebody better plug me in)

The jukebox plays a toxic waltz, a factory belches steam

A sidewalk ends in baby steps, the widow maker screams

(And it sounds like this)

Hear her call your name

All around the world tonight, people watchin', people
waitin'

All around the world tonight, people livin' disconnected

(Solo)

The page is turned, the city burned, the whole world falls apart

The plug is pulled, truth escapes, the space between our hearts

Space between our hearts, space between our hearts

All around the world tonight, yeah
