There's two kinds of people that I just can't stand
An evil-hearted woman and a lyin' man
Don't you lie to me, don't you lie to me
Because it makes me mad and I get as evil as I can be
You told me that you loved me long time ago
The woman that you had, you don't want her no more
But don't you lie to me, don't you lie to me
Because it makes me mad and I get as evil as a woman can be (Solo)
You told me that you loved me long time ago
The woman that you had, you don't want her no more
Because it makes me mad and I get as evil as a woman
can be
Hey don't you lie to me, don't you lie to me
No no, don't you lie to me, don't you lie to me
Because it makes me mad and I get as evil as a woman
can be
Don't you lie to me... (to fade)
