"Burning Sun"

In a lazer gun ray she approaches me
Pushing through my chest
You thought it was the end
But you'd just begun

Like all the massive tree's
That cut into the sky
I wonder what it's like
I wonder what it's like

You will always find the burning sun

From submarines
On the deepest deepness
I could see you drift
You thought it was end
But you'd just begun

Like all the dead birds
Still singing in my mind
You will always find a way
Even if it's gone

You will always find the burning sun

Where were you
When it all came down like the rain
Light the way on a silent sea
From the pains

You will always find the sun
Even if it's gone
