Joey took a shot cause he didn't like to run Joey took a lot, now his head has blown him all the way home
It was on TV, boy did I like yesterday news
It was not as fun, it was the sound of the psycho
He would never be seen sleeping on the magazine
But now at least he is free like the sound of the psycho, like the sound of the psycho
It's a real love killer and it's a real love killer It's the sound of the psycho, it's the sound of the psycho, it's the sound of the psycho Bringing in the strong, Joey never goes there alone
He was not that brave, like the sound of the psycho Yeah, love night it came, he came along in my dreams and he told me all
All about his fall, like the sound of the psycho Like the sound of the psycho, like the sound of the psycho, like the sound of the psycho
It's a real love killer, it's a real love killer
Joey took, he took a shot cause he didn't like to run Joey took a lot, like the sound of the psycho
It's a real love killer, like the sound of the psycho
It's a real love killer, like the sound of the psycho
It's a real love killer, it's a real love killer, yeah
