I haven't told you everyday,
The way that I should
What your love means to me,
I'd change that if I could

Cause now I understand,
And it took too long to learn
Actions aren't loud enough
You need to hear the words

(Chorus)
So from now until forever,
I'll tell you day and night
How much that I love you,
And need you in my life

You will be my everything,
The one that I dreamed of
I'm thankful now and everyday
For having you to love

The things I never said,
I know they can't be changed
But, I promise from now on,
Things will never be the same

I wish I could go back now,
And make it up some way
But I know, I jsut can't go
So from now on starts today

(Chours)
So from now until forever,
I'll tell you day and night
How much that I love you,
And need you in my life

You are my everything,
The one that I dreamed of
And I'm thankful everyday,
For having you to love

(Bridge)
Maybe forever is not enough
For me to show you all my love

(Chorus)
But from now until forever,
I'll tell you day and night
How much that I love you,
And need you in my life

You are my everything,
The one that I dreamed of
And I'm thankful everyday,
For having you to love
