Just You

Oooooohooohoo

You were my sun, that light up my life
Always laughing, never cried
You'd bring me joy
And like the day, that turns into the night
Everything that was so right, began to go so wrong
I never thought that it could be this way

Chorus:

Now that you're gone
I'm standing all alone
Because your heart, it was my home
Will I get by without you
The only one
Who filled my body and soul
With love and made me lose control
It's you, just you

Night after night, I dream you're in my arms
Cause your love can heal the scars
Of an empty soul
Reach for me through all the time and space
Cause no one else can take your place
Can't face another day
I know it's a dream but I wish you were here to stay

Chorus:

Now that you're gone
I'm standing all alone
Because your heart, it was my home
Will I get by without you, ooh ooh
The only one
Who filled my body and soul
With love and made me lose control
It's you, just you

Can you, stop the pain, ba-a-bay

Chorus:

Now that you're gone
I'm standing all alone
Because your heart, it was my home
Will I get by without you, ohowoho
The only one
Who filled my body and soul
With love and made me lose control
It's you, just you, you oo oo oo oo oo oo
