I was breathein' but lord I was barely alive
Findin' reasons for losin the will to survive
I pushed the heart far beyond what it could take Sometimes somethin's gotta break

Chorus

Now it's alright, I think I see a light there up ahead
Yeah it's alright, I think I've finally risen' from the dead
The fire inside of me was gone like the wind
Now it's stirrin' within
It's coming back again

Down in the ashes of a light that I let bury me
One hand pullin' me under, and another tryin' to set me free
In the struggle, I know I lost my way
Somehow I never lost my faith

(chorus)

Sometimes you stumble over steps you never take Sometimes you learn from your mistakes

(chorus)

It's comin' back again
