There goes my heart again
Stepping out on a limb
Skating on ice to thin
When will I learn?

It must have been the wine
That made me lose my mind
Falling so far, so fast
And feeling so much

Please tell me what was I thinking of?
For just one night
I thought we might always be in love
Just a fool with a dream, what was I thinking of?

My heart's been broke before
Right then and there I swore

Be no more rushing in
Once was enough

Please tell me what was I thinking of?
For just one night
I thought we might always be in love
Just a fool with a dream, what was I thinking of?

What was I thinking of?
For just one night
I thought we might always be in love
Just a fool with a dream, what was I thinking of?

What was I thinking of?
For just one night
I thought we might always be in love
Just a fool with a dream, what was I thinking of?
