Driving home from work just yesterday impatiently waiting for the light to change
I noticed a homeless mom and her two kids
She reached out and lifted up a trash can lid
Her face lit up when she looked inside
And pulled out a broken armless doll knelt down and gave it to her smallest Child
And God you should have seen her smile
It ain't pretty, but it's beautiful
Life ain't perfect, but it's wonderful
We're all broken, but we're loveable
It ain't pretty, but it's beautiful
Got home and told my wife bout what I'd seen
She grabbed her purse, took me by the hand and said come with me
We drove around until we found the three of them
I wondered who was blessing who when they got in We bought them food and cloths and drove them to a toy story
And the little girl said "I don't need a brand new doll as she hugged the broken armless one they found before she said this one needs me more
She ain't pretty, but she's beautiful

She ain't perfect, but she's wonderful

She might be broken, but she's loveable

She ain't pretty, but She's beautiful
Last night my wife and I talked till the sun came up

About how we fuss and fight sometimes,

Say ugly things act so unkind

But we think God we always find our way back to love
It ain't pretty, but it's beautiful

Our love ain't perfect, but it's wonderful

We're still learning to be loveable

It ain't pretty, but it's beautiful
We're all learning to be loveable

Ain't always pretty, but it's beautiful
