Where do you go when it rains in Mexico?
Where do hide when the bottom falls out of the sky?
And who do you love when the one you love been
loving someone else?
It ain't no fun, tryin' to have fun all by your self?

So where do you go when it rains in Mexico?
I gotta watered down margarita stuck in the sand
The little umbrella is doing the best that it can
Everybody said this is the place to set your spirt free
Well, I came down and the clouds came out
And they poured down on me.

Sooo, I got to ring out my shirt when I get back to the hut
I gotta find a place to dry off my coconut (Ha Ha)
There's a pretty little brown eyed girl
Flaggin' a taxi cab
She's alone so she might know, maybe I should ask

Hey, Hey
Where do you go when it rains in Mexico?
Where do hide when the bottom falls out of the sky?
And who do you love when the one you love been
loving someone else?
It ain't no fun, tryin' to have fun when your all by your self?
So, Where do you go when it rains in Mexico?

She supplied the transportation, I supplied the rum
When we got to the destination I gave her some, rum
Now I know where to go when it rains in Mexico
Where to hide when the bottom falls out of the sky
And who to love when the one you love beens lovin' on someone else
It ain't been fun tryin' to have fun all by my self

So Where do you go when it rains in Mexico?
Where do you go when it rains in Mexico?
Where do you go when it rains in Mexico?
Now I know where to go when it rains in Mexico.
