It was cold outside when you walked in
How was I to know
The way that I would feel
You kissed me like a promise and
From that moment on
I realised that we'll

We'll be flying
We'll be floating
Just as long as you're with me

It's just a little crush (just a little crush)
But now it's turning into love (turning into love)
I'm tripping on a world of everything
With what your love brings
It's just a little crush (just a little crush)
You know I can't give you up, no (I can't give you up)
Who would have thought that our first kiss
Could possibly lead to this

As natural as breathing
You become a part of me
I don't want this dream to end
To touch you and to feel you near
As far as this love goes
To the sky and back again

We'll be flying
We'll be floating
Just as long as you're with me

It's just a little crush (just a little crush)
But now it's turning into love (turning into love)
I'm tripping on a world of everything
With what your love brings
It's just a little crush (just a little crush)
You know I can't give you up, no (I can't give you up)
Who would have thought that our first kiss
Could possibly lead to this

Now everything is clearer (clearer)

I couldn't wish for anyone to love me better
And I love to watch you move
And I love the idea of loving you
It's so easy to do

It's just a little crush (it's a little crush)
But now it's turning into love (turning into love)
I'm tripping on a world of everything (I'm tripping on a world of everything)
With what your love brings
It's just a little crush (it's a little crush)
You know I can't give you up, no (can't give you up)
Who would have thought that our first kiss
Could possibly lead

It's just a little crush (just a little crush)
But now it's turning into love (turning into love)
I'm tripping on a world of everything
With what your love brings
It's just a little crush (just a little crush)
You know I can't give you up, no (I can't give you up)
Who would have thought that our first kiss
Could possibly lead

It's just a little crush (just a little crush)
But now it's turning into love (turning into love)
I'm tripping on a world of everything
With what your love brings
It's just a little crush (just a little crush)
You know I can't give you up, no (I can't give you up)
