I'm falling for these memories,
ones forgotten of you and me.

looking back on the times before,
I miss them now so much more.

It's plain and simple, I'm falling for these memories...

Once again thoughts scribbled down, as the late night fades around these memories I've fallen for,
of you and me from the times before

I'm falling for these memories,
ones forgotten of you and me.

looking back on the times before,
I miss them now so much more.

summer days, running through my veins...
