"Squeeze"

You're no more the lady than I think You rock my boat and you make it sink
But you're stuck in the squeeze
I could be crushed by you again
because you all or nothing
Where do I begin?

Water is cold though I tried to swim
Your shark, it still bites and rips my skin

But you're stuck in the squeeze
I could be crushed by you again
because it's all or nothing Where oh where do I begin?
But you're stuck in the squeeze
I could be crushed by you again
because you're all or nothing oh where do I begin?

You didn't drag me down you just dragged me in The games that you play I cannot win

Stuck in the squeeze
I could be crushed by you again
because you're all or nothing
Where do I begin?
'Cause you're stuck in the squeeze
I could be crushed by you again
because you're all or nothing
where do I, where do I begin?
Where do I begin?
Where do I begin?
