"New Car"

Parody of Kenny Chesney's big hit "Big Star"

Enjoy

(spoken)

Come on you no good worthless piece of foreign...

(BEEP)

Wait till I get me a royalty check

I'm gonna buy me an American made car

Piece of junk

People always shout obscenities

When I stall in their lane

They're all convinced when they see me driving this heap that I'm insane

But seat belted in

I push the gas down fearlessly

Breaks stop working then

I watch the engine overheat

I need a new car

I can't ever get far

This one breaks down on me all the time

It's got four bald tires

And it always backfires

And I'm sick of that check engine light

I need a new car

I replaced all the cables and hoses

Had grease all over my face

For a couple weekends I had parts thrown all over the place

I put it back together fast

But now it's even worse

Now my friends just laugh

Cause it only goes in reverse

I need a new car
Getting to work's hard
When you have to drive backwards all the time
I'd find a junkyard and I'd sell it for parts
But I know they won't give me a dime
I need a new car

I won't repair anymore
Now the dang transmission's about to fall out
The only thought that's on my brain is the new car
I could be driving now

Rumor is they're having a sale over at the push pull or drag car lot
If I can get this towed down there I swear I'll take anything they've got
So with a credit line of $20,000 plus
No interest or money down and no more taking the bus

I got a new car
Looking like a big star
I don't care if the price is too high
It's got a VCR cruise control and Onstar
So I know where I'm at all the time
I got a new car

He got a new car
