(Verse)

Mia, turn that noise in your head
Turn it into a song
And then get up on that stage and sing loud
'Cause that's where you belong

(Verse)

You don't need to let those with fear in their hearts have a say
The light that's inside you will patiently guide you and show
And show you that no one can stand, stand in your way
In your way

(Verse)

And Mia, well it don't make no difference
What we choose to believe
'Cause all of us someday this world
This world we must leave, we must leave

(Verse)

So don't let the people with hate in their hearts steer you wrong
May the music inside you
Always remind you that your heart
Is eternal and strong, and strong

(Verse)

Yep, take that noise in your head
And turn it into a song
Get up on that stage and sing it loud
'Cause that's where you belong

It's where you belong
