(Verse)

Darling, when I gaze upon your face
Inside my heart I seem to find more space
So I take a bite of your sweet lemon pie
And darling, tears of joy invade my eyes

(Chorus)

And it feels so right
To hold you tight
Your hand in mine as I drift off to sleep
Darling, I'm yours to keep, yours to keep

(Verse)

And I'll the ocean, case it has not heard
That keepin us apart is most absurd
And I can't believe I ever did resist
Your precious heart and sweet and tender kiss

(Chorus)

And it feels so right
To hold you tight
Your hand in mine as I drift off to sleep
Your hand in mine as I drift off to sleep
Darling, I am yours to keep

(Verse)

Darling, when I gaze upon your face
Inside my heart I seem to find more space
I take a bite of your sweet lemon pie
And darling, tears of joy invade my eyes
